

VISTA 1967

Pat, I don't know how to put it in words, but you know how much I love you. Every since that first night I can't bear to be without you. We've been going together for more than a year now and it seems like the longer we go together the more I love you. We've been through hard times and good times together and all the hard times has done is to bring us closer together. You're the most wonderful and perfect person there is. It seems like whenever I've felt down or disappointed you always there to give me strength. I remember everything we've done together. Sometimes I just sit and think of all the good times and things we've been through together, and it makes me feel so good to know we'll keep having those good times. Pat, we've got our whole ~~lives~~ lives ahead of us and I know we'll be together forever and ever. Nothing could ever come between us, because together we are strong. We were made to be together and we will be together until eternity. Pat, I love you

Alma Mater

To Cascade High, the Crimson and the Grey
We pledge our loyalty.
We'll cheer your name
With spirit—all the way
In loss or victory.
Thru all our days
We'll sing your praise
With hearts and courage true.
Thru smiles and tears of future years
CASCADE stands true!

ROLL ALONG

Roll along—Bruins fight—roll down the field

On to victory

Roll along—score those points—don't ever yield

Always a winner be

Get that ball—give your all—Crimson and Grey

Raise your banner high

With firm endeavor—roll on forever

"Congratulations to the class of 1967. This is a time of great opportunity for those who have received a good high school education. There is much more growth in our city and country. Alert, well educated young people are in demand. I am sure the class of 1967 will meet the challenges of this exciting growth period. Education will be the key to your future success."

A. B. Colburn
Principal

"Each year Cascade's graduating class becomes bigger and better. Our graduates continue to be better trained. Cascade's changing curriculum, improved methods of instruction and our emphasis on quality education have produced a better prepared graduate. Congratulations Class of 1967. We wish you every success in all future endeavors."

HEY SENIORS, THERE'S OUR MAN

SENIORS HERALD THE FUTURE

WE KEEP THE BEAR TRAP FOREVER

First Talent Show

Above: Barb, Peggy, and Bonnie harmonize sweetly. Above right: Alison gives the show a bit of English charm. Right: Midori dances daintily to a Japanese tune and legend.

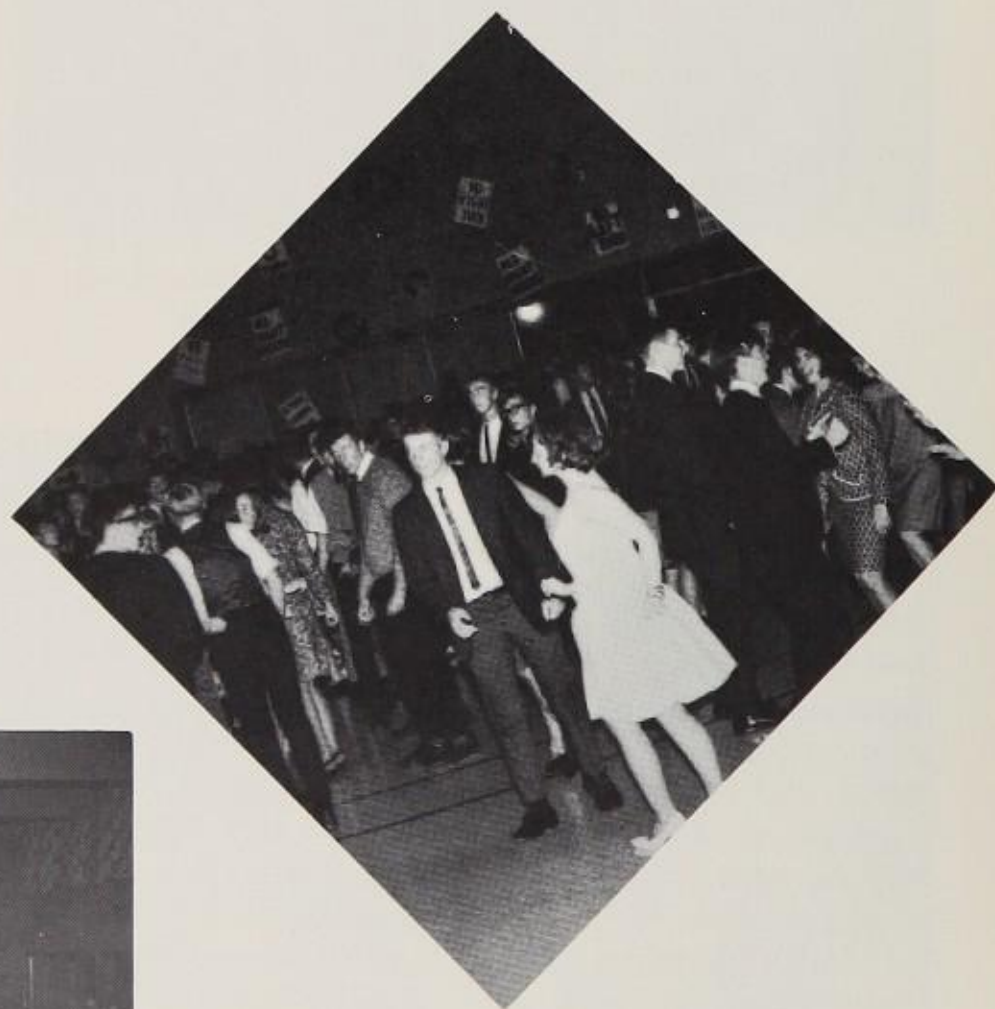

With emcees Phyllis Diller (Linda Velia in disguise) and Wayne Wise, Cascade held its first talent show. Featured in the show were Midori Shigeta dancing a Japanese interpretation; Marilyn and Margaret Richer and Nancy Petreson doing a pantomime in a toy shop; Barb and Bonnie Diede and Peggy McNeil, who sang "Dream"; Kerry Canfield, who played a piano concerto; Margo Brewer and Debbie Marstrom performing a Tahitian dance; Rick Stanton singing "Walk On"; Shirley Boyd, who sang "Double Oh Soul"; Jennifer Fowler, singing "As Long as He Needs Me"; Tom Davis and Dick Ludwig imitating the Smothers Brothers; Alison Davies, who gave an oral intrepertation of the poem "Albert and the Lion"; and Sue Forrest and Tom Fosket, who sang "It's Almost Like Being in Love."

Cruisin'

Seniors gave an October night of colored lights and streamers to Cascade students with their dance, "Cruisin'." Students enjoyed an evening of each other's company as the Cowley Affair played the sounds of the city.

Serving as committee chairmen under general chairmen Jim Maynard and Terre Bragg were Terri Cochran, Marcie Schultz, Kathy Haines, Carol Schmitz, Scott Newton, Terri Thielen, Anita Naffz, Ron Thompson, and Nancy McKean.

ACTIVITIES

*A day of special movement,
A night of glad fulfillment.*

Girls' Club Officers: l. to r.: Mrs. Thomas, Advisor; Jan Stephanson, President; Bobbin Hodges, Vice President; Linda Quam, Secretary; Sandy Moore, Treasurer.

I BELIEVE AS A GIRL OF CASCADE HIGH SCHOOL I SHOULD BE:

Truthful, pleasant, considerate, and humble

Courageous to uphold high morals

Loyal and sincere in friendship

Too noble to speak ill of others

Willing to forgive and forget

Quick to appreciate what is done for me

Prompt and gracious in obedience

Respectful to my elders

True to the best that is in me

That I may become a fine and worthy woman.

Of Our Days at Cascade

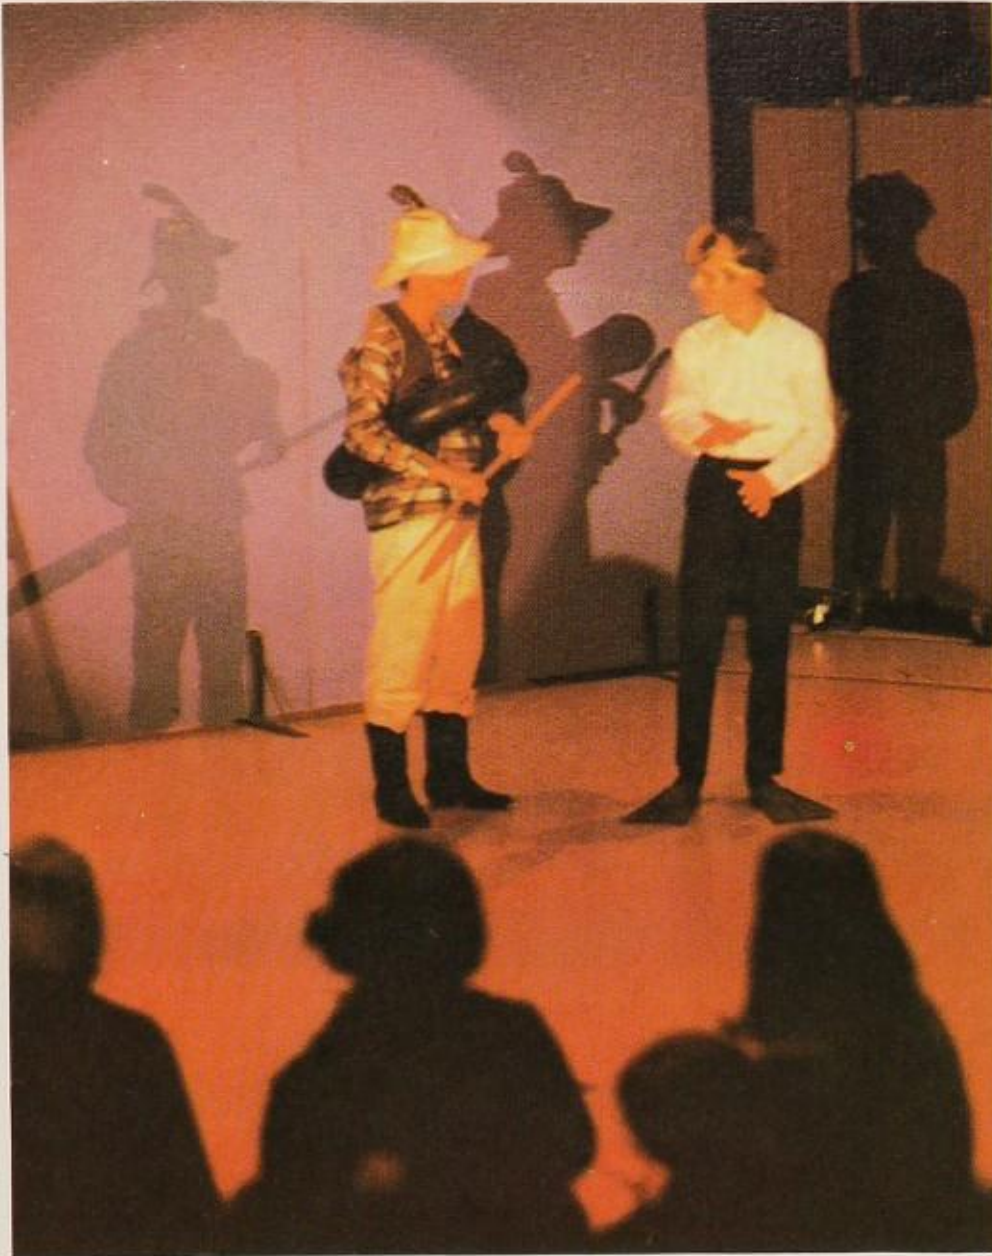

Boys' Club Officers: Mr. O'Donnell, Advisor; John Bryant, Treasurer; Fred Reykdal, President; Steve Ayers, Secretary; and Jim Ping, Vice President.

I BELIEVE AS A BOY OF CASCADE
HIGH SCHOOL I SHOULD BE:

Honest, loyal, sincere, and proud
Generous in giving of myself
Responsible to my obligations
Confident in myself and my abilities Eager to acquire the friendship of others
Sincere in striving for future goals
Strong and noble in upholding ideals
Willing to accept defeat
And gracious in claiming victory
True to myself and my ambitions
That I might become A successful and happy individual.

"Take Me to Your President"

Students were transformed into unforgettable characters as the house lights dimmed and the make-believe world of Cascade's fall play began. Caught in the life of A-1, Pat Duffy portrayed a young Englishman striving to achieve world peace. Supported by an excellent cast, the play captured the audience's imagination as it carried them through the fantasy of Take Me to Your President.

A Great Success

Above: "You don't understand. On Mars, some people tend the sheep, while others look after the rockets. I happen to be a rocket tender."

Below: "Give me half an hour of plain talk, man to man, with the big shots—half an hour is all I ask, mark you—and I'll settle the whole thing."

Drama Club

Masked in their roles of make believe, drama students presented "Night Must Fall" and "Take Me To Your President" to the Everett community. Many students were involved both on stage and behind the scenes, contributing to the success of both productions. The members worked with spirit and energy under the guidance of Mrs. Dysart and set new goals of achievement for their drama club and the school as a whole.

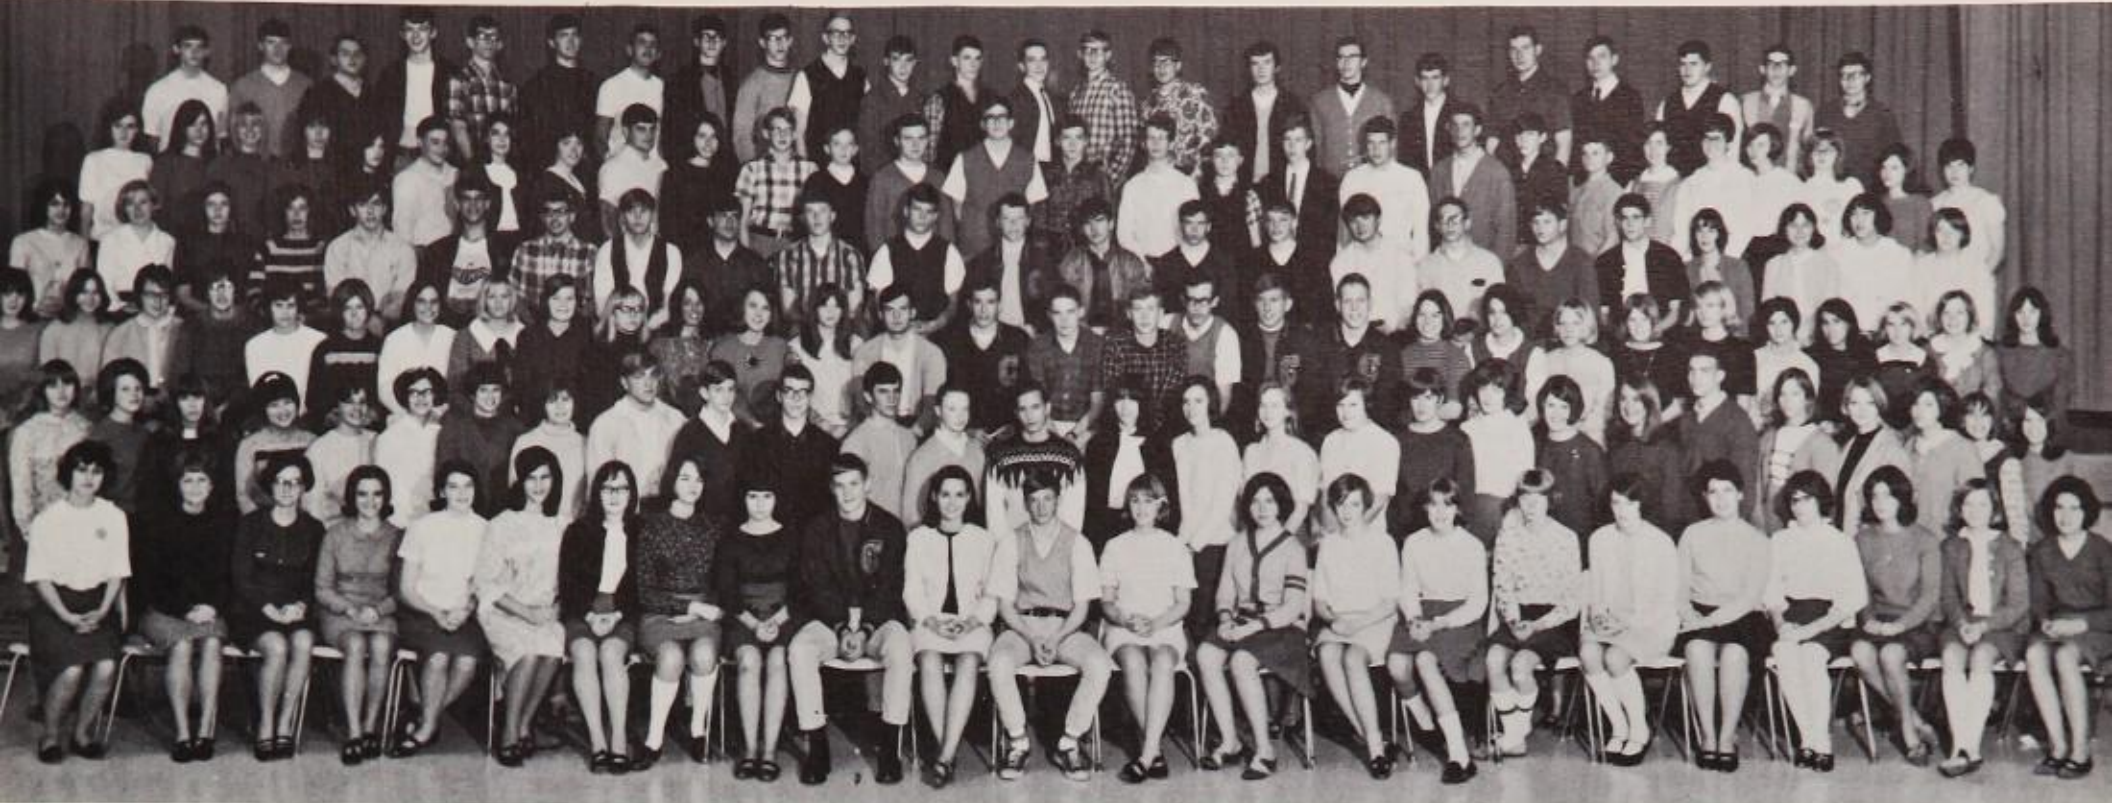

Thespians

Each member of Thespians earned his title by making enough points in the different aspects of drama to become a member of this honorary group. The group as a whole achieved a quality of theatrical presentation that made the world of drama come alive for Cascade students.

Students Strive for

The scholars of Cascade are rewarded with membership in the National Honor Society, an active group at Cascade. To become a member, a student must have an accumulative grade point of 3.2. The Honor Society worked to promote interest in scholarship by having speakers, a banquet, an assembly, and various activities. Cascade is proud to have such a large group of Honor Society members.

Kathy Haines, State Winner of Betty Crocker Home-maker of Tomorrow Award

GIRL'S AND BOY'S STATE

Top to bottom: Larry Young, Steve Ayers, Terre Bragg, Linda Mitmoen, Kathy Haines.

Electronics Club

The Electronics Club provided field trips, experiments, and lectures for students interested in Ham Radio operating and general electronics. Mr. Martinson advised the club. This year's officers included: Dan Schmit, President; Doug Geniesse, Vice-President and Lloyd Buster, Secretary.

Science Club

Designed for students with special interest and ability in the field of science, Cascade's science club enjoyed many interesting activities. Advised by Mr. Buster and led by this year's president, Greg Mowat, the club probed the depths of science through field trips, speakers, and lab experiments.

Y. A. C.

New to Cascade this year, Y. A. C. (Young American Citizens) enjoyed a large turnout of students interested in discussing current political issues. Many views were presented, and tentative conclusions were reached. Anyone interested could join and express his ideas.

Bruinettes

Cascade's marching team, the Bruinettes, provided excellent entertainment at several home football and basketball games along with their performance at Dad's Night. The Bruinettes hosted the Seventeenth Annual Northwest Drill Conference in our gymnasium April 1st. They took first place in the Combination Drill for the second time in a row.

Flashlight Squad

At all our home football and basketball games, the members of the flashlight squad ushered and kept students in order. These boys gave much of their time for this squad and did a job well appreciated. Interested lettermen volunteered their services for this squad.

G.A.A.

The G.A.A., a sports activity program for girls, was advised by Miss Dinnetz, Miss Rozman, and Miss Matheson. This year girls turned out for volleyball, basketball, gymnastics, tennis, badminton, and track. The girls participated in athletic activities with other schools to meet new friends and enjoy the spirit of competition. Regardless of ability, anyone may join and opportunity is given to all to earn a letter.

Participating in district debate competition, practicing debates with schools in this district, and actively engaging in college sponsored tournaments kept the Debate Club busy this year. The goal of Debate Club is to acquaint students with the fundamentals of speech.

French Club

"Parlez-vous Francais?"

French Club is open to those students who have had at least one year of French. The purpose of the club is to acquaint students of French with the French civilization, its people, and their customs.

Row 1, l. to r.: R. Starks, Mrs. Gregorich, C. Fields, Row 2: C. Tuell, D. Porter, R. Read, Row 3: J. Wiggam, L. Stevenson, V. Braun, Row 4: N. Elsberry, I. Okimoto.

Junior Guild and Caducians

l. to r.: C. Cotterill, L. Robeck, L. Curtis, I. Okimoto, K. Larson, V. Dart.

"To Promote interest in the care of the mentally retarded" is the purpose of Junior Guild. Each year the club sponsors a mentally retarded child with whom they correspond. Club members partake in various projects and receive the satisfaction of helping others.

Caducians is a club where anyone interested in health science careers is invited to join. Interesting and informative material is presented at their meetings so as to further the members knowledge along these lines.

Quill and Scroll

Quill and Scroll is an honorary, international society of high school journalists. Any member of, or contributor to the VISTA, STEHEKIN, or TYRO may join. Mrs. C. Fransson is the advisor.

PEP CLUB

With new spirit and enthusiasm, this year's Pep Club became the nucleus for school pride. Under the direction of Mrs. Fransson, the club produced a successful Homecoming, one of the highlights of the year. It also sponsored pep assemblies and rallies, which were favorable additions to activities of a busy year.

Election Committee

Advised by Mr. Zalesky, the Election Committee planned all of the various activities and required jobs concerning all school elections. This year's chairmen were Jim Tollefson, Nancy Peterson, and Vicky Westman. The committee was kept busy, especially in the Spring, conducting the seemingly innumerable tasks involved in an election. They set up the nominating conventions, supervised campaign procedures, organized a candidate assembly and counted an endless stream of ballots.

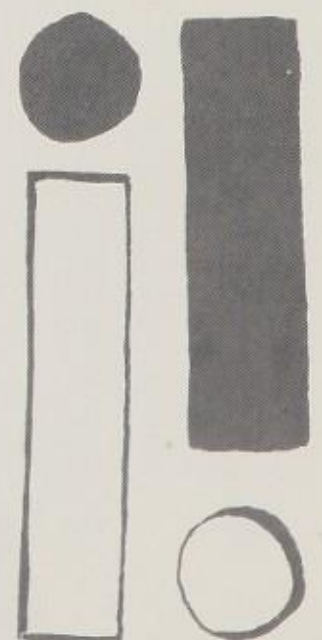

The Bruins of the Month and Girls of the Season are students who are honored by the Boys' and Girls' Clubs respectively. They are selected on the basis of having given extra time and effort to the betterment of the Boys' and Girls' Clubs of Cascade.

Band

Cascade's band performed well under the leadership of Mr. Krintz. They marched at football games and participated in Christmas and Spring concerts. The band also gained recognition away from school by joining in local parades and concerts. Membership is open to any student who is sufficiently prepared on his instrument.

A Capella Choir

With voices combined in song, Acapella brought musical enjoyment to Cascade and other communities. Under the direction of Mr. Ted Wahlstrom, singers performed at the Lion's Club and Evergreen Junior High School. At a special Christmas assembly the combined Acapella and Chorus entertained the entire student body with songs of the season. They also presented a winter and spring concert to the public. Early in the spring, the music department sponsored a trip to the Seattle Opera House.

Stage and Pep Bands Sound Off

Pep Band

The Pep Band of '66-67 added pride and excitement to Cascade by performing at all pep assemblies and home basketball games. Membership in the band is an honor restricted to the choice of the director, Mr. Krintz. The band practiced after school hours.

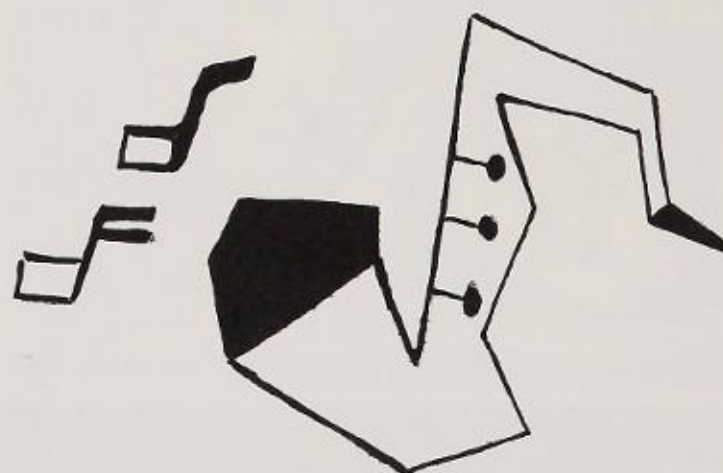

Front: Mr. Krintz
 Row 2: Greg Reece, Lyle Ford, Mike Gilstad, Steve Westman, Joanne Melley, Dan Simmons, Don Rider, Lynne Childs, Bill Horman.
 Row 3: Martin Schneider, Dan Leyde, Darrell Phinney, Dan Green, Rick Gumke, Dave Martinson, Jim Barrows, Bill Lagenfelder.

Stage Band

Contemporary jazz music, played for concerts and civic functions, was the business of the Stage Band this year. This very select group included only the best players of the main band's sections. Mr. Krintz, the director, chose the members.

Swing Ensemble . . .

Orchestra . . .

The Orchestra, under the fine direction of Mr. John Brown, worked hard this year to perfect the quality of its music. Performers on the violin, viola, cello, and bass presented several performances this year which provided entertainment at various assemblies and concerts here at Cascade. Their performances were well-received with warm-hearted approval.

Boasting the best talent in the music department, Cascade's swing ensemble performed in many special programs. Highlights of the year were singing engagements throughout the community, as well as seasonal programs and musical assemblies. The fourth annual operetta, OKLAHOMA, was presented at Cascade during the second week of May. Class membership is determined by special auditions in the Spring.

Business Education Club

The Business Education Club, advised by Mr. Bestul and Miss Osterhout, gave an opportunity to students interested in a secretarial job or business occupation to develop competent business leadership and to create interest in business occupations. The various activities they organized were bake sales, sending a Christmas card to Viet Nam, and field trips. Also, for interested students, the club provided films and speakers.

TYRO

Young writers developed their talents through TYRO, Cascade's creative writing club. Under the direction of Mrs. Rowe, they produced the TYRO, Cascade's creative writing magazine. In this annual publication are contained various creative works of students at Cascade.

Row 1, l. to r.: K. Maguda, G. Brokaw, A. Davies, D. Mach, Mrs. Rowe. Row 2: C. Tuell, S. Monjay, J. Richter, M. Barger, B. Livingston, L. Stevenson, B. Goen.

The Vista staff of 1967 worked hard to produce a refreshing annual with their theme depicting "A Day and Night at Cascade." The staff consisted of twenty-eight members, who met every sixth period under the instruction of Mrs. Johnson, Vista advisor. Many hours were spent cropping pictures, drawing lay-outs, composing and typing copy, and selling ads. Both the memories and experiences of this past year are represented here in the pages of this book which the Vista staff of 1966-67 proudly presents to you, the students and faculty of Cascade.

STEHEKIN . . .

Busy all year around, the Stehekin staff kept the school informed of the various events of the school year. Whether describing news or entertaining features, the '66-67' staff worked for the promotion of Cascade's school motto: "School of Pride." New features added this year were Gary's Closet and Club Footnotes. The students on the staff learned many aspects of putting out a paper as well as the fun of belonging to such a class.

New Worlds to Cascade

"Everytime I go over my personal diary I'll remember how much importance Cascade High School had in the success of my American year. At the first Pep Assembly of the year, you Bruins seemed so strange — perhaps I was strange. But a little by little I learned how cool CHS is. The thing that I appreciated very much is the frank friendliness of all the buddies I met. I wish I could thank each one of you personally, but I will say a big THANK YOU to the whole student body and faculty and I assure you that I'll always be PROUD of groovy CHS in Italy."

"On the very first day at Cascade, the Orientation Day, I remember everyone warmly welcomed me with a big smile and a friendly 'Hi!' Football games, dances, and dates were all new to me and often times excited me like an electric shock. Nervously I took the first step of everything and now it is one of my funniest but great memories. I felt I was a Bruin and with such nice friends I never could be homesick. There are lots of things left to say, but I want to mention most is that Bruins are No. 1 always and THANK YOU VERY MUCH for a wonderful year. I hope someday you can come to visit me. Until we meet again "Sayonara" to everyone."

"Fantasy In Frost"

Cascade's cafetorium was transformed into a magical world of "Fantasy in Frost" as the Boys' and Girls' Club combined ideas and talent to produce one of the most enjoyable dances of the year. Eric & The Shomen provided music to dance the night away, as Mr. and Mrs. Santa Claus strolled through the crowd passing out Christmas gift souvenirs.

"Break it up you two old fools!"

The music department presented their fourth annual operetta on the 9th, 10th, 11th, and 12th of May. This year's presentation was Rogers and Hammerstein's OKLAHOMA based on Lynn Rigg's Green Grow the Lilacs. The story comes out of the period of American history when the farmers were moving west. It is the love story of Curly, a cowboy, and Laurie, a farm girl, who are caught in the struggle to unite the cowman and the farmer. They find that the "country's a-changin, got to change with it."

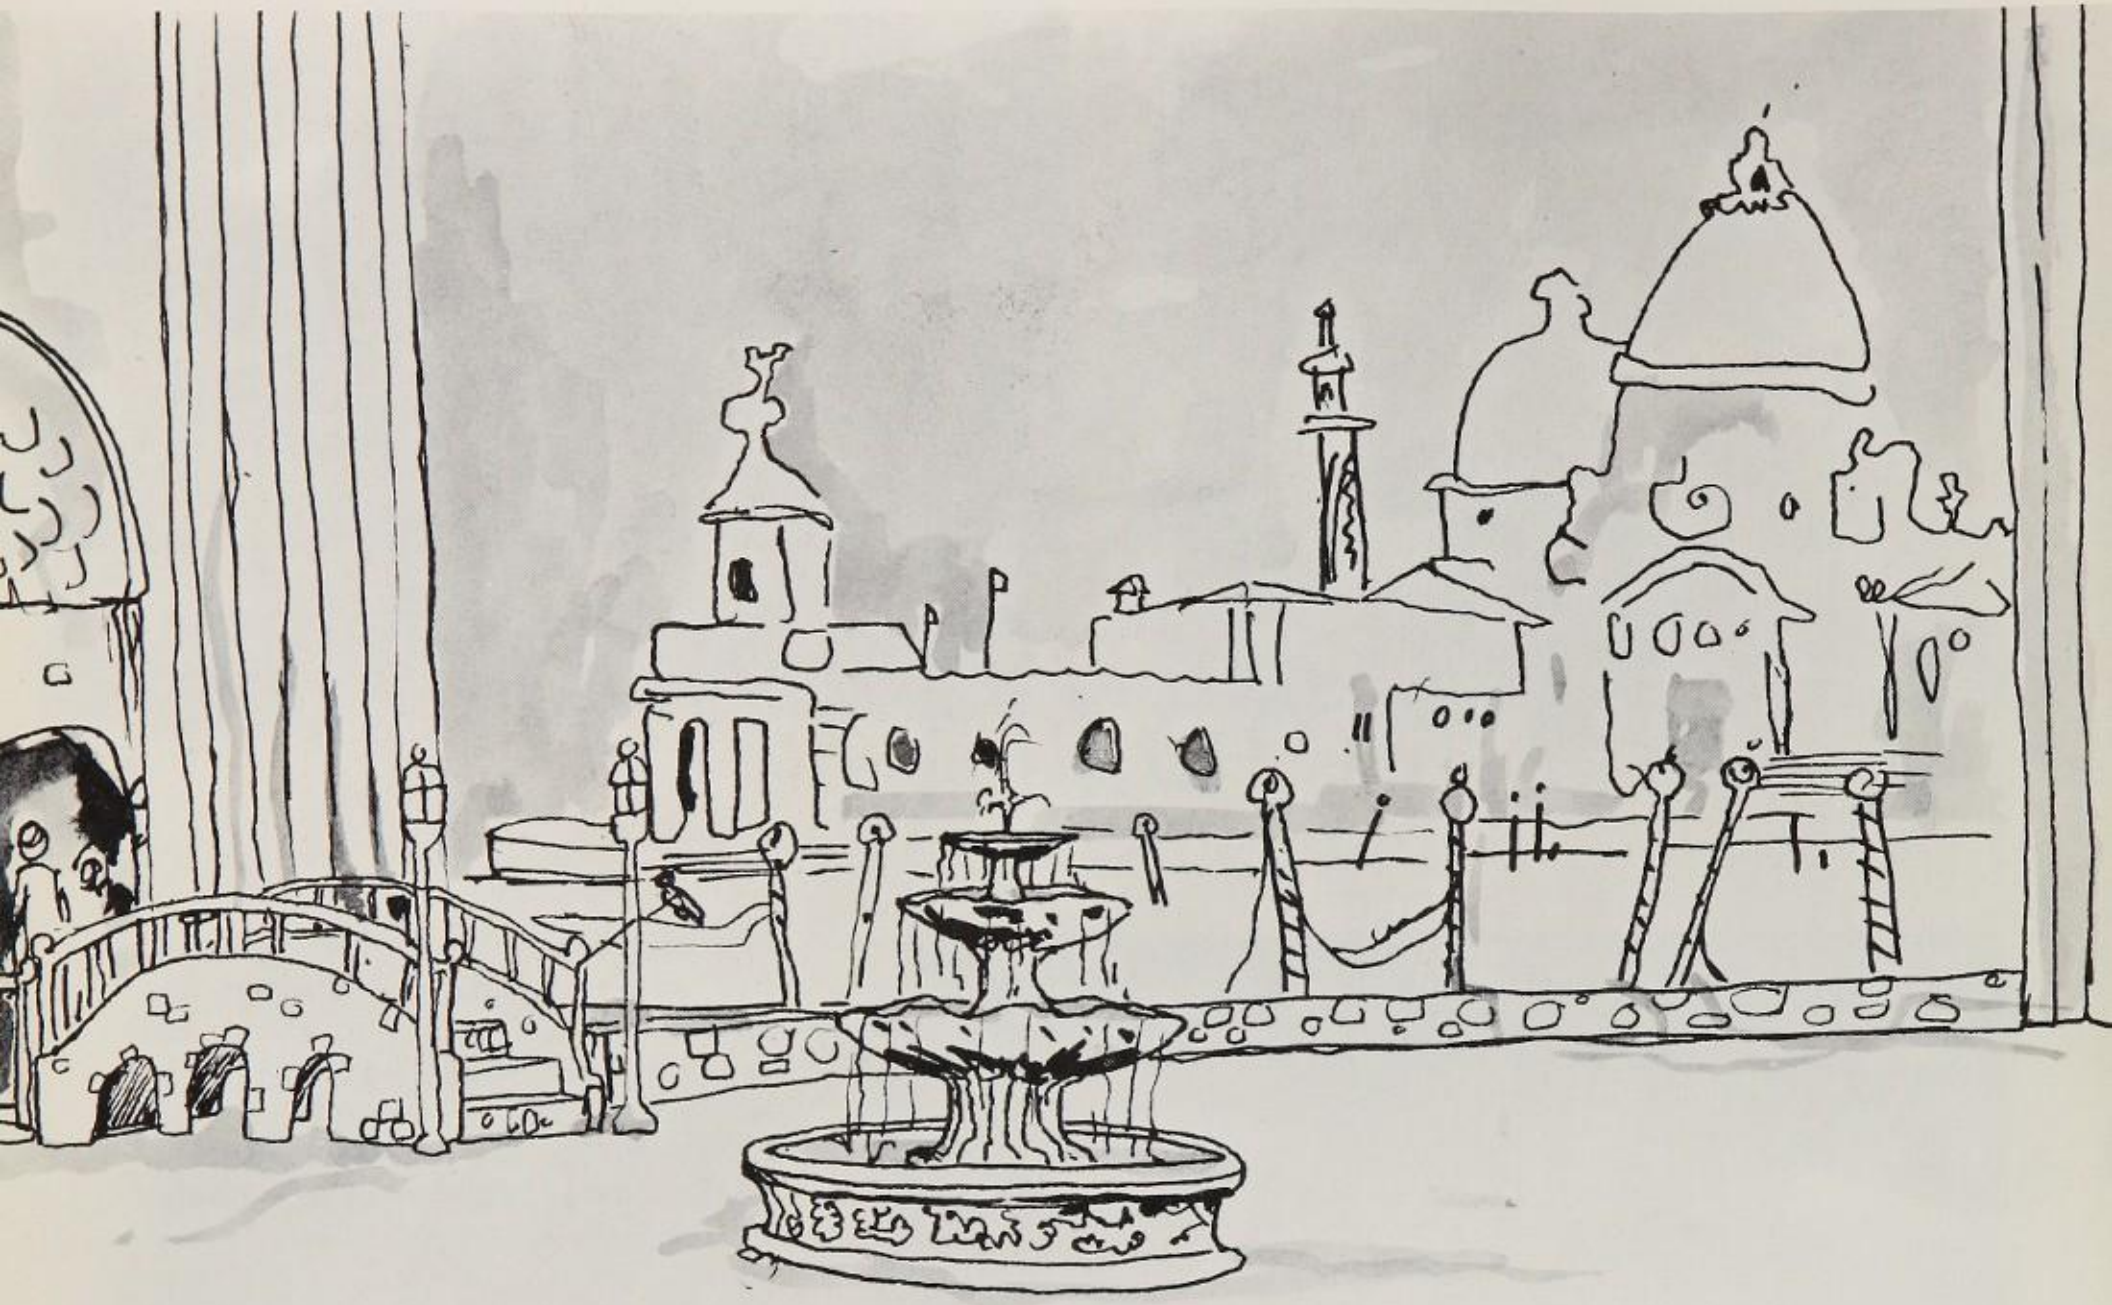

Sadie Hawkins

The sophomores outdid themselves in hay and dog-patch decoration to create our Hillbilly Haven. Plenty of grub, Marryin' Sam, unlimited foot-stomping and an obstacle course added to the fun. No other activity quite matched the fun of our Sadie Hawkins dance.

I do?

"Al De La"

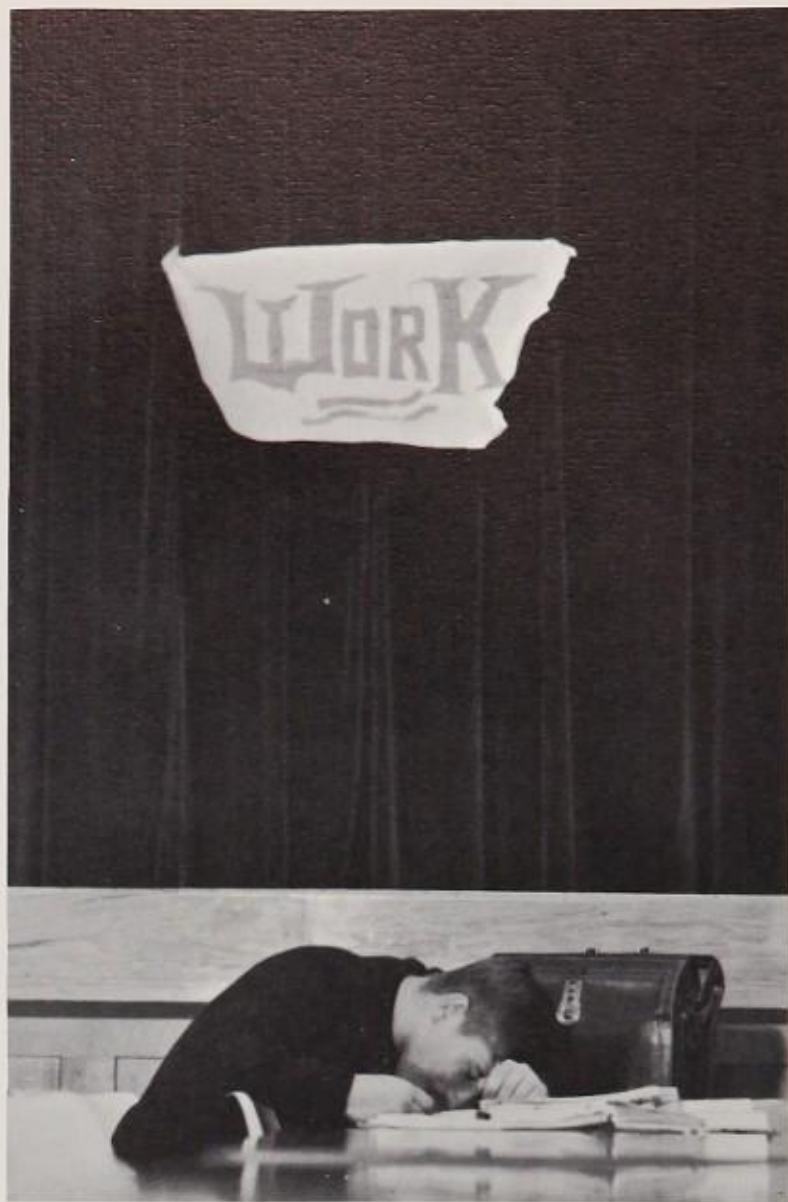

On April 29, Cascade's most memorable evening unfolded into an exciting visit to Venice. The mood was set with a new idea in bands, "The Stagmen." The theme "Al de la," an Italian song title, was carried out beautifully in the Italian decorations and programs. Nothing could have been prettier than the lovely parade of new formals against the beautiful Venice backgrounds. The General Chairmen were: Roxanne Blair, Pam Danner, Jerry Loomer, and Jim Iles. The other chairmen were as follows: decorations, Lois Harstead and James Thomas; showcase, Jeanette Halverson and Cindy Gronski; picture scene, Dawn Whitehead and Nancy Jackson; refreshments, Kay Dorn and Carol Davis; programs and tickets, Sharon Helaas and Lynda Woods; entertainment, Morrie Anderson and Janice Pilskog; coat room, Jill Hatley and Terrie Davis; clean-up, Linda Olson and Chris Johnson; publicity, Sheryl Olson; fund raising, Donna Berry; and chaperones, Darlene Peterson and Dianne Anderson. Advisor, Mr. Gray.

Cross Country

The 1966 Cross Country team regained the city championship, defeating Everett in every meet. The highlight of the year came when Cascade won a fourway meet over Bellingham, Sehome and Everett. The success of the team came as the result of the hard work of each member. The nucleus of the team was comprised of Juniors, who should make a fine showing in the Western Conference under the able leadership of the newly elected captain, Joe Armitage.

As new coach this year Marvin Gray instilled a spirit of co-operation in the team that led to a successful season.

BRUINS

NO. 1

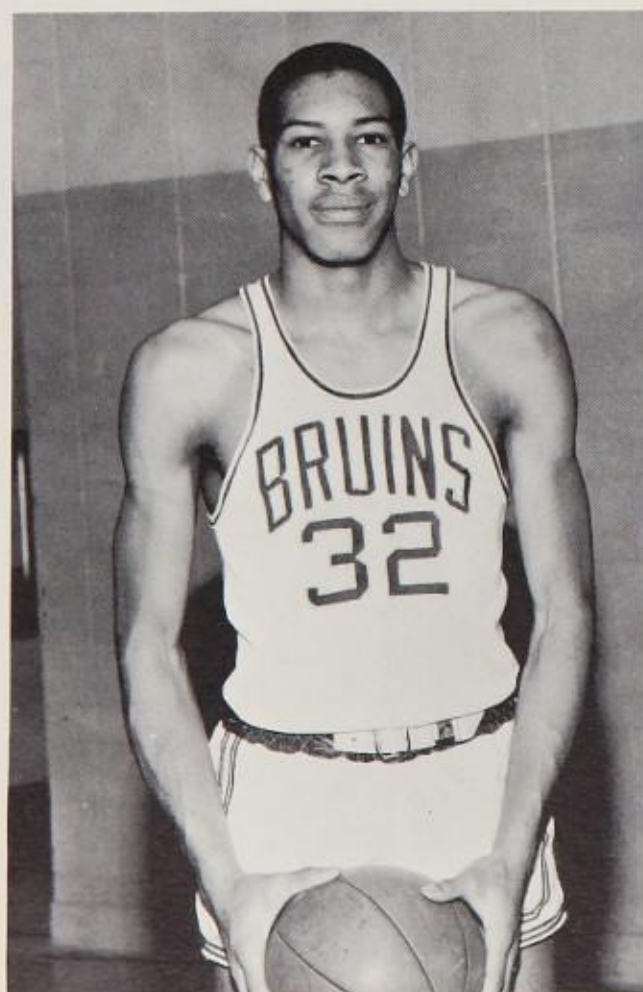

With the spirit of cheering crowds and anxious expectation, Bruins work with pride to make their day of victory.

Kneeling — l. to r.: C. Ridgeway, D. Ping, S. Hartzell, M. Gilcrest, M. Ritcher, T. Brown, S. Hill, F. Reykdal, R. Brickman. Standing — l. to r.: M. Williams, N. Kortekaas, G. Hallam, Coach Scodeller, Coach Wilkerson, Coach Rommerdahl, B. Smith, S. Ayers, L. McCulloch.

This year's Cascade basketball team was able to accomplish what no other Bruin team had done, by winning their first Western Conference Championship. To do this the Bruins had to compile a record of twelve wins against two defeats. Every win was a vital one because the conference title wasn't won until the last game of the season against Meadowdale. The Bruins were able to defeat every team in the conference, with two wins over Seattle Prep, Blanchet, Edmonds, Meadowdale, and Mountlake Terrace. Cascade split games with Everett and Bellingham.

A season's record of thirteen wins and six losses were also the best record by a Bruin team. Twelve players were lettered by Coach Reg Scodeller, which included only four seniors. With such a great crop of lettermen returning from a championship team, Coach Scodeller and the Cascade Bruins are definitely headed for an exciting and prosperous 1967-1968 basketball season.

Boys' Gymnastics

Under the coaching of Mr. Schaler and Miss Dinnetz, the boys' gymnastics team went to the State meet at Washington State University. There, the team placed 6th out of some 30 schools. Locally, Cascade claimed the city's gymnastic championship with their win over Everett High. The boys completed a successful season with a record of 7 wins and 1 loss.

Girls' Gymnastics

The gymnastic team, coached by Miss Dinnetz, had a very successful season. The girls proudly brought back 25 ribbons in three of their meets for competition on balance beam, parallel bars, in free exercise, vaulting, and tumbling. On the 18th of March, Nancy Vincent, Janice Pilskog, Gini Denson, Jackie Allen, and Pat Whitson went to the State Tournament in Auburn. Nancy placed 1st all around in the junior division, 1st on the bars, 2nd on the beam, 3rd in free exercise, and 3rd in vaulting. Pat Whitson earned honors by placing 2nd in the junior division on the parallel bars, and Gini Denson earned 3rd place in the junior division for the parallel bars.

Rocky Shore and Mark Nunamaker, Inspirational Award Winners.

Although the Swim Team didn't acquire many wins during the season, it sent five boys to the State meet at the University of Washington. They were Dave Hodges, Mike Hollowell, Jim Durkin, Mark Nunamaker, and Bob Lloyd. Dave Hodges was the most outstanding by taking sixth in the State in diving. The Inspirational winners for the 1966-67 Swim Team were Seniors Mark Nunamaker and Rocky Shore. Jim Durkin was presented next year's captain's award by 1966-67 captain Bob Lloyd.

Show Action

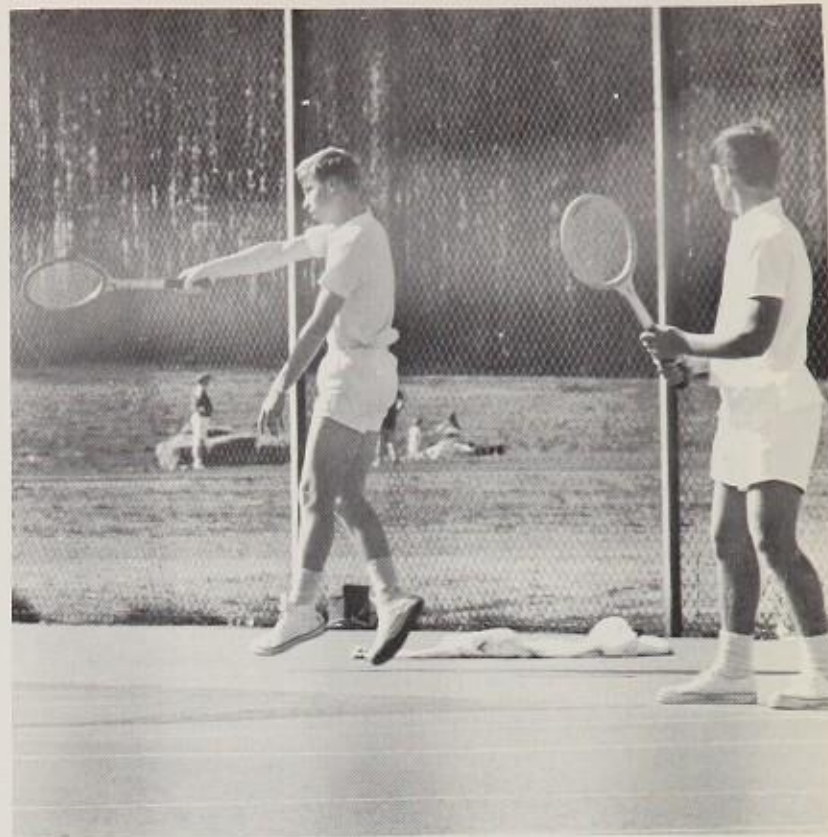

Coach Norman, Captain Bob Lloyd, Coach Pringle.

The 1967 boys' tennis team had a very successful season under the coaching of Mr. James Pringle. The team competed in matches with Marysville, Snohomish, Blanchett, Seattle Prep, Bellingham, Edmonds, Mountlake Terrace, Everett, and Meadowdale.

The boys who participated in the games were those who through their individual efforts, were able to show excellence in the sport. Although some boys competed on more regular basis, all contributed in spirit to the making of a very fine season.

Managers: J. Green, D. Semays, D. Humphries.

The 1967 baseball team received many supporters this year. Backed by their dedicated coach, Mr. Krause, and captain Dan Hutsell, as well as three hard working managers and a proud student body, the team showed action that is worthy of praise. Although the boys' roster clearly shows more losses than wins, they claimed a victory in fair play and good sportsmanship. Some of the schools played include: Lake Washington, Everett, Bellingham, Anacortes, Meadowdale, Seattle Prep, Blanchett, Wenatchee, and Marysville.

Row 1, l. to r.: B. Brodniak, G. Ball, M. Gilcrest, E. Conway, D. Hutsell, F. Reykdal, S. Ayers. Row 2: Coach Krause, G. Gagnon, J. Tomlin, T. Brown, J. Rochester, G. Miller, J. Hawkinson, D. Doglip. Both boys and girls track teams shared spirit in their meets of 1967. This year brought an equal measure of success and failure to both teams.

Under the leadership of Coach Birrell Dinnetz, the second season of girls' track actively participated in several local meets as well as competing against veteran Seattle teams.

The boys team continued to display the enthusiasm of former years, bringing their coaches Mr. Dire and Mr. Gray a season to be proud of.

"YOUR JOB"

Wherever you're working — in office or shop,
And however far you may be from the top,
And though you may think you're just treading the mill,
Don't ever belittle the job that you fill;

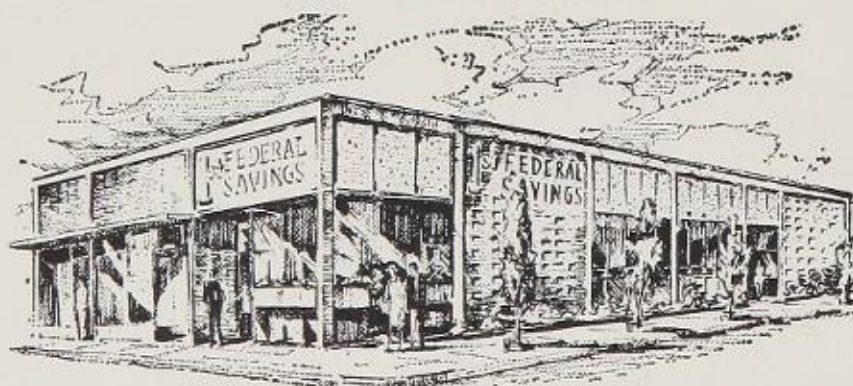

For, however little your job may appear,
You're just as important as some little gear
That meshes with others in some big machine,
That helps it keep going — though never is seen.

They could do without you — we'll have to admit —
But business keeps on when the big fellows quit!
And always remember, my lad, if you can,
The job's more important — oh yes — than the man!

So if it's your hope to stay off the shelf,
Think more of your job than you do of yourself.
The job is important — don't think it is not —
So try hard to give it the best that you've got!

And don't ever think you're of little account —
Remember you're part of the total amount.
If they didn't need you, you wouldn't be there —
So always, my lad keep your chin in the air.

A digger of ditches, mechanic, or clerk —
Think well of your company, yourself and your work.

And the day stands in the shadows

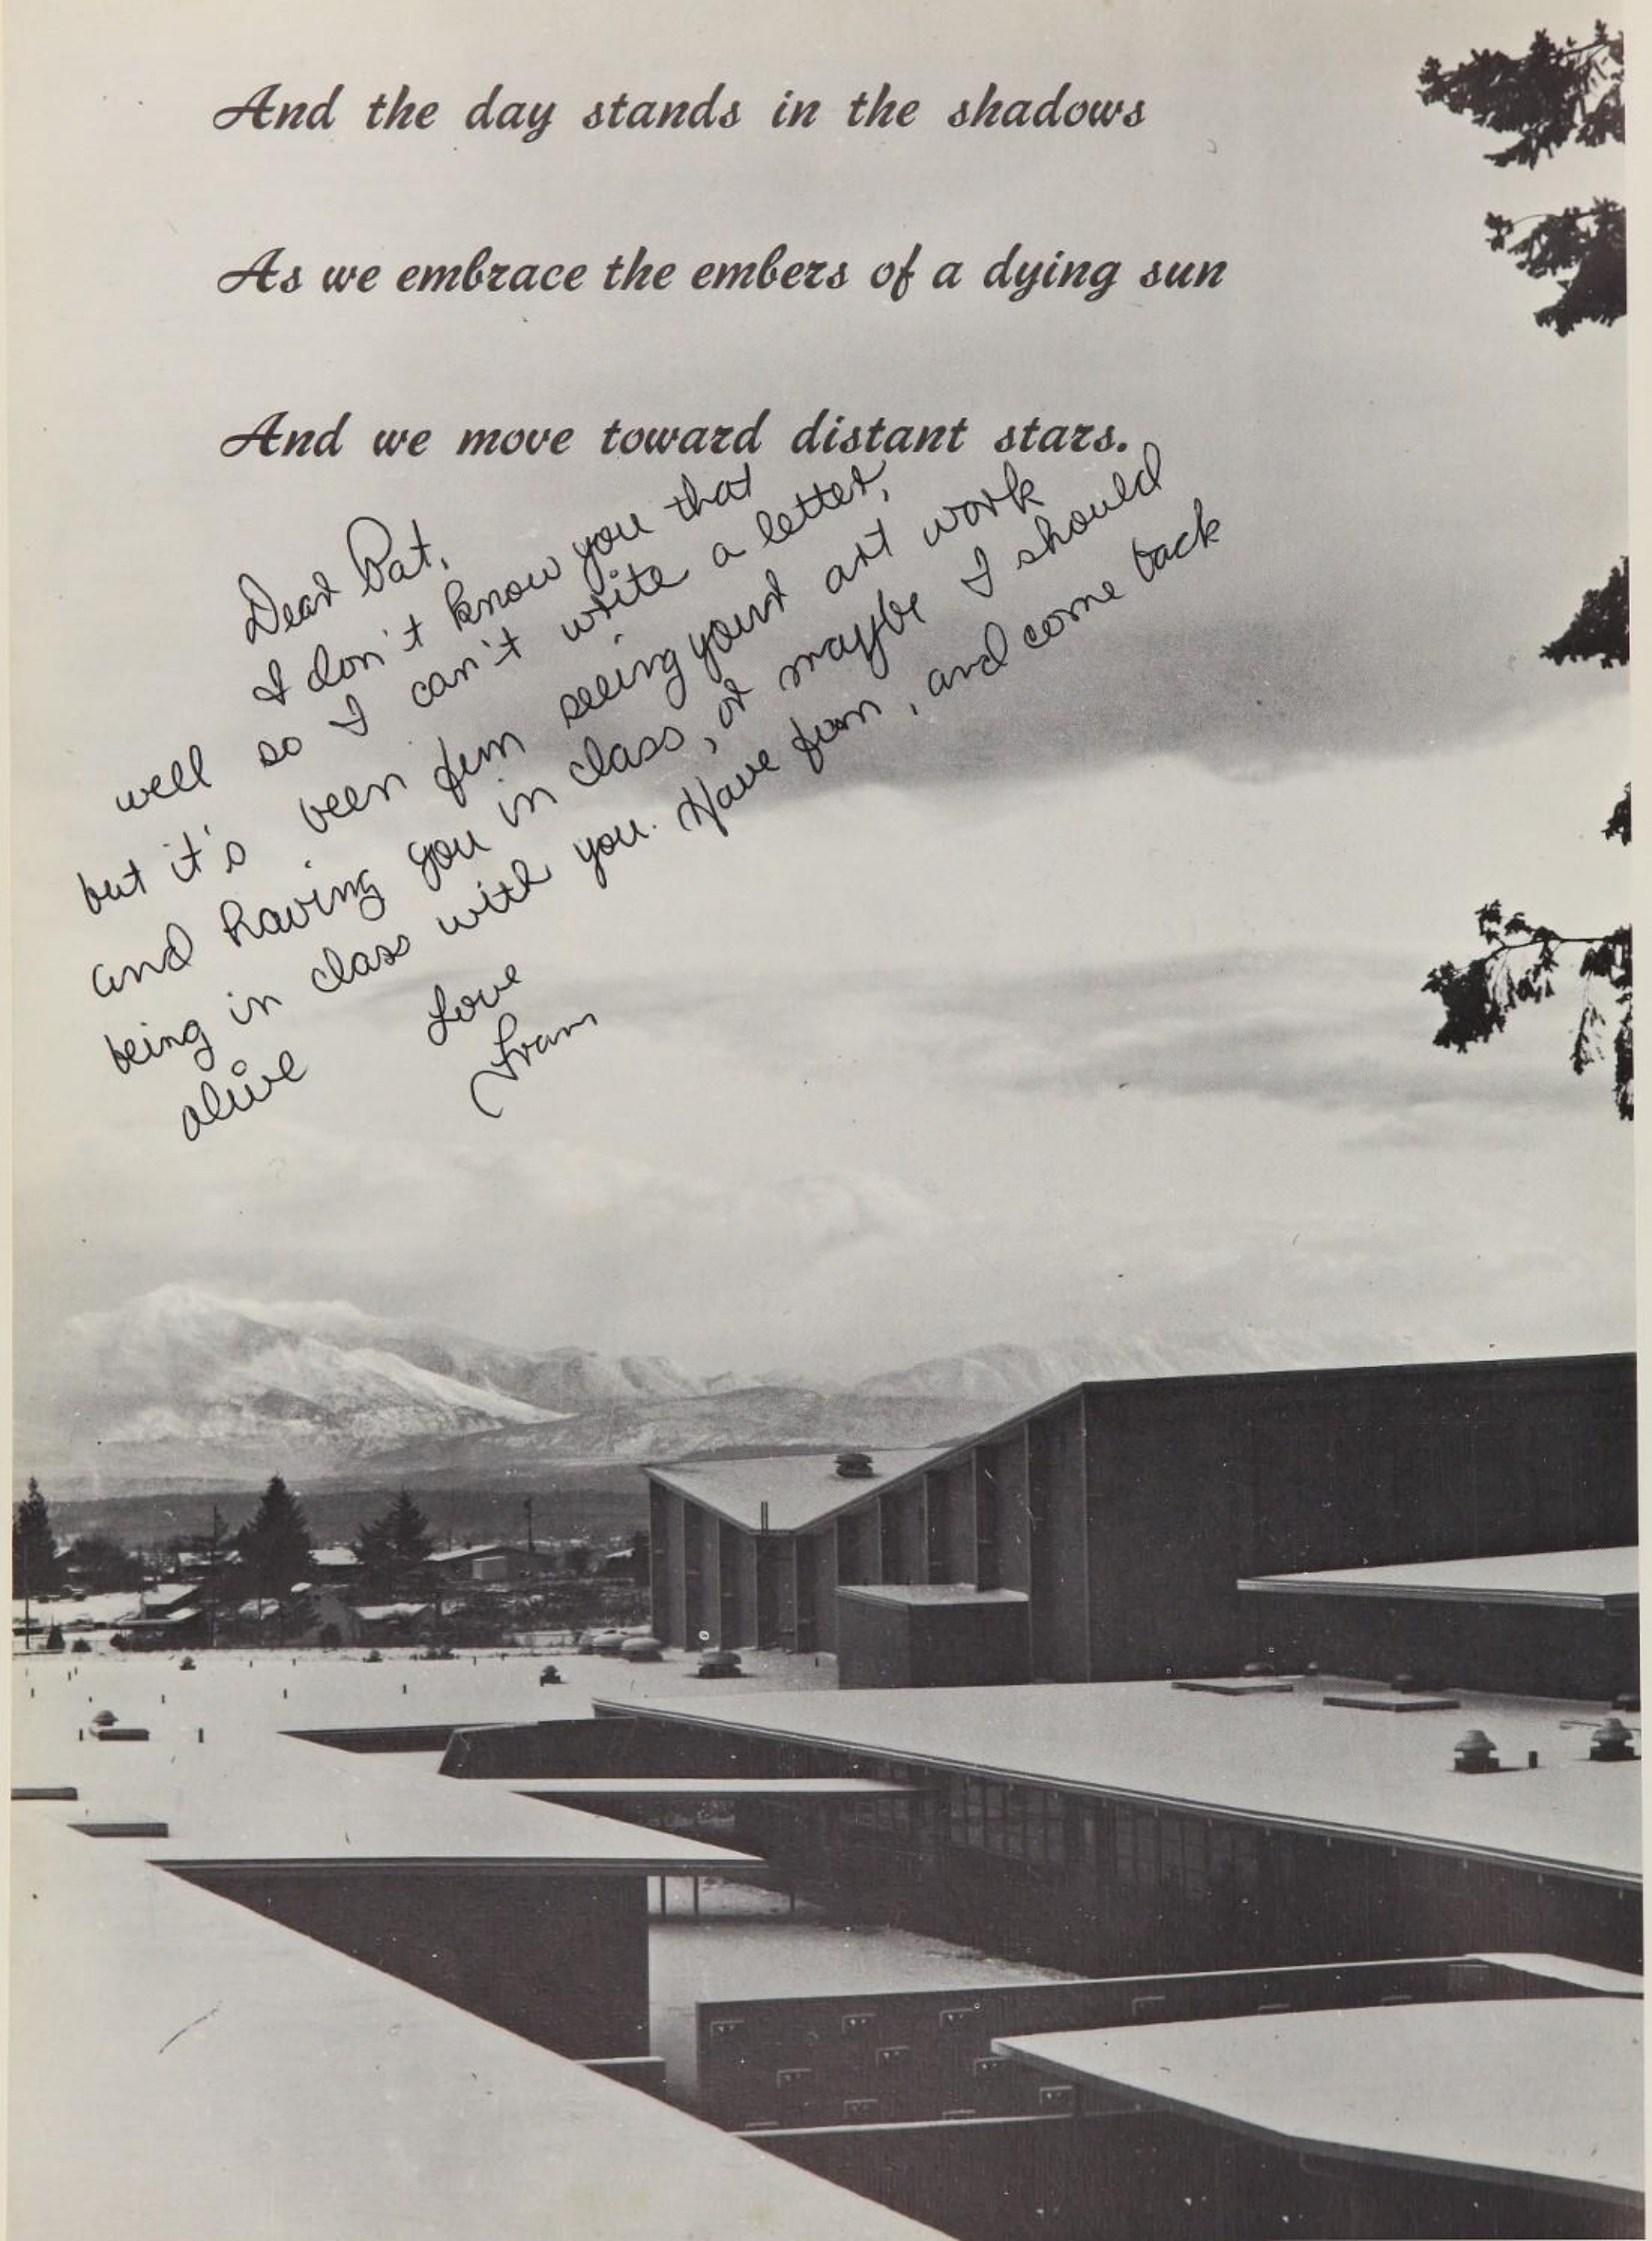

As we embrace the embers of a dying sun

And we move toward distant stars.

Dear Pat,

I don't know you that well so I can't write a letter, but it's been fun seeing your art work and having you in class, or maybe I should be in class with you. Have fun, and come back alive

Love
Frank

Pat
 well we finally made it through the year with Mr. Klingman.
 Wish you good luck
 in the future years
 and we as sweet as you are now

"67" Kathy Brady

Pat

hi. geez its really been kicks
 in this art class huh? Well it is really good to know you and stuff. Have fun this summer; good luck.

Bar

Hopie (NORTHMOY)

Dear Funkin,
 well were passed another years (I THINK) But were managed to stay out of trouble

see you next year
 enjoyed your company and hope to see you next year great heart to this year
 Rick Stanton

Pat, its been well, its been lots of fun seeing you again this year.
 in your future years
 lots of fun (with Bill) will

Harry Denny
